

Honolulu Federal Credit Union

Board of Director Candidate Biographies

Wyman Au, Incumbent

Wyman Au retired in 2002 as a meteorologist with the National Weather Service with 42 years. He is a graduate of Saint Louis High School and the University of Hawaii. Wyman served as a Major in the Air Force and was commander of the Hawaii Air National Guard Weather Flight. Wyman has been a member of HOCU for over 56 years and a director since 1984, serving as Vice Chairman and Secretary/Treasurer. He was a Hawaii Credit Union League director from 1987 to 1997, a CUNA Mutual National Policy Owners Program Hawaii Representative for eight years. His recognitions include a Very Special Person award by CUNA Mutual Insurance Group for his outstanding contributions to its program, and in 2001, as Volunteer of the Year by the HCUL.

Colin Chung

Colin Chung retired in December of 2019 from the Internal Revenue Service, working as a Revenue Officer for 33 years with experience in tax collection and financial analysis. He graduated from Saint Louis High School, the University of Hawaii with a BA, and Golden Gate University with an MBA. He has been a member of the HOCU since 1986 and is currently serving on its Supervisory Committee.

Annie Fletcher

Annie Fletcher became a member of HOCU in 1979 while working for the U.S. Department of Commerce. She left the Federal government in 1981 and the State government in 1983 to join the private sector, remaining until her retirement 2012, and came back home to Hawaii after being away for 22 years. She was involved with the Roosevelt High School Alumni Association and Alumni Foundation until 2020 and serves as the Secretary/Treasurer of the Harbor View Plaza Association of Apartment Owners board of directors. Annie has been a member of HOCU's Supervisory Committee since 2018.

Christopher Jay, Incumbent

Christopher Jay retired in 2001 as Executive Director of Honolulu Pacific Federal Executive Board. He subsequently worked in Human Resources capacities, including EEO Investigator and Personnel Officer for various departments in the City and County of Honolulu and State of Hawaii, with his last job as Supervisory Trainer at the State Health Department. He graduated from Iolani High School, the University of Hawaii with a BBA, Pepperdine University with a MBA, and received a certificate in Meteorology from Texas A&M. Chris also served in the Air Force and Hawaii Air National Guard as a Weather Officer and retired as a Lt, Colonel. Furthermore, he was the President of International Ballroom, Inc. for 9 years. Chris served on HOCU's Supervisory Committee and as Secretary/Treasurer of the Board and is currently the Chairman of the Board

Lydia Kauha, Incumbent

Lydia Kauha retired in 2004 as Revenue Officer Group Manager after being with the Internal Revenue Service since 1978. She attended the University of Hawaii and various Internal Revenue Service management training schools. Lydia served on the Supervisory Committee of Honolulu Federal Credit Union before being elected to the Board of Directors in 1987. She served as Board Chairman from 1990 to 2010, Vice Chairman of the Board from 2011 to 2018, and currently serves as Secretary/Treasurer of the Board. Lydia has also served as the chairman of the credit union's Scholarship Committee for the past several years.